A Blessing Poem for These Last Summer Days

As the last few weeks of summer find us, here is a prayer by Ted Loder:

Thank you, Lord,
for this season
of sun and slow motion, of games and porch sitting,
of picnics and light green fireflies
on heavy purple evenings;
and praise for slight breezes.
It's good, God,
as the first long days of your creation.

Let this season be for me
a time of gathering together the pieces into which my busyness has broken me.
O God, enable me now
to grow wise through reflection, peaceful through the song of the cricket, recreated through the laughter of play.

Most of all, Lord,
let me live easily and grace-fully for a spell,
so that I may see other souls deeply,
share in a silence unhurried,
listen to the sound of sunlight and shadows, explore barefoot the land of forgotten dreams and shy hopes, and find the right words to tell another who I am.

Amen.

Building an Inclusive Church

AN INVITATION FROM THE NORTHWEST SYNOD OF WISCONSIN

About a year and a half ago as part of a Lenten series of Mission Ministry Team guest speakers, entitled “Who Is My Neighbor,” we heard from a representative of Reconciling In Christ about ways we can expand our hospitality and welcome as a congregation. It was one of many guest conversations that gave us a general sense that we could likely grow in our understanding of what it means to welcome various neighbors into our mission.

Recently, the NWSWI (our Synod of the ELCA) has begun to explore what it means to expand the hospitality and welcome of our whole synod. As part of that exploration they are offering a day-long workshop on “Building an Inclusive Church” on Saturday, August 17th from 9AM-3PM at Bethel Lutheran Church, highlands campus. This is a great opportunity for anyone who is genuinely curious about understanding their Christian call to hospitality and evangelism. If you are interested in attending or wonder if this is right for you, feel free to reach out to Pastor Annie here at HOPE. You may also contact Rev. Sara Bishop, Synod Advocate for Right Relationships at synodadvocate@nswi.org with any additional questions.

For more information, please see the flyer below. You can register directly HERE and make sure to select the August 17th event in the drop down menu!
